Dear IBM Alumnus/ Alumna,

We as an Institute are extremely proud of your achievement. We trust that you have enjoyed doing your course and that you have gained dependable knowledge and expertise from the learning. We are sure that your IBM Certificate will be instrumental in opening doors for you to a prosperous future. You may display your Certificate proudly.

You can now add your study record to your CV or by listing us on your LinkedIn Profile. Your study record with the Institute will be kept on file and will be confirmed to any personal agency or prospective employer should they enquire about your studies with the Institute.

Please keep us informed of your career development such as promotions, new positions or entrepreneurship as we endeavour to keep record of the achievements of our Alumni. Many IBM Alumni are serving our country well in senior and executive positions in business, the public service, commerce and industry. We know that you will follow in these footsteps and wish you well in your career.

Share Your Experience
